

Program Advisory Committee

3D Program

FOR GIRLS & WOMEN

Document. Drive. Deliver.

March 2020

Mohan Agashe | Mental Health Advocate and Theater and Film Actor

Dr. Mohan Agashe was the Professor of Psychiatry at BJ Medical College and Sassoon General Hospitals in Pune, India. His report to improve mental health education and services led to the formation of new policy by the Government of Maharashtra and the establishment of the Maharashtra Institute of Mental Health (MIMH) in Pune in 1991, where he served as founding Director-Professor. Dr. Agashe also served as an Advisor to the Government of Maharashtra on Mental Health. He was the Principal Investigator for a project on 'Health Consequences of Natural Disasters with focus on Mental Health' organized by the Indian Council of Medical Research at MIMH in 1994 and one of two Principle Investigators for an Indo-US joint project on 'Cultural Disorders of Fatigue and Weaknesses'. Dr. Agashe started his acting career in theatre and went on to act in plays and films of many highly acclaimed directors. He was on deputation as the Director of the Film and Television Institute of India from 1997 to 2002. Dr. Agashe received his MMBS and PG degrees in Psychiatry from B. J. Medical College in Pune.

Anand Bang | Health Advisor, Tata Trusts

Dr. Anand Bang's current work with the Tata Trusts involves strategy development, implementation and building partnerships in the Health portfolio. Dr. Bang serves as Honorary Advisor, Health, to the Chief Minister of Maharashtra, and is also associated with the Society of Education, Action and Research for Community Health (SEARCH), a non-profit organization involved in rural health services and research in Gadchiroli District, Maharashtra. He has previously worked as a Senior Consultant at the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India. Dr. Bang received his master's degree in Public Health from Johns Hopkins University and his undergraduate degree from Maharashtra University of Health Sciences.

Madhukar Banuri | Founder and CEO, Leadership For Equity

Madhukar Banuri is the Founder and CEO of Leadership For Equity, a systems change and research organization that works to strengthen the effectiveness of public school systems to deliver quality education at scale. In 2015, he started the education vertical at Pune City Connect to implement interventions for scaling quality education in municipal schools of Pune city. With almost 11 years of experience in the education sector, Madhukar previously spent five years with Teach For India, as a 2009 Fellow of the first cohort and also as a manager working on school and government relations in Pune. He started his professional career in product marketing with Larsen & Toubro. Madhukar holds an engineering degree from BITS Pilani. He is a 2015 Acumen India Fellow and serves on the advisory boards of Teach For India and Tapasya Pratishtan.

Leena Deshpande | Associate Vice President, Human Resources and Head, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), Bharat Forge

Leena Deshpande currently serves as Head of CSR at Bharat Forge. She has over 34 years of experience in visualizing, planning and implementing human resource and CSR initiatives with NGOs and the private sector. She is a member of the National CSR Committee of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and the State Steering Committee on Skill Development for CII, Industry Institute Interface Panel, Pune, and sits on the board of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Symbiosis Centre for Management Studies, Pune. As Head of CSR, Leena successfully supported Bharat Forge's vision of developing 100 villages from Maharashtra on five major indicators, including water for drinking and farming, livelihoods, internal roads, health and education. Leena has organized several skill development programs for rural youth to increase employability and established an Industrial Training Institute [ITI] near Pune as a skill development initiative of Bharat Forge, which is considered a public-private partnership model. Leena holds a master's degree from the Karve Institute of Social Service, Pune, India.

Suneeta Dhar | Senior Advisor, JAGORI - Women's Training & Resource Centre

Suneeta Dhar is a Senior Advisor with Jagori, a women's documentation, training and communications centre in New Delhi. She has over 30 years of experience working for women's rights, gender mainstreaming and advancing women's leadership with civil society organizations in India and the United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM). Suneeta is a Co-Founding Director of the South Asia Women's Fund (Colombo and India), a member of the South Asian Network of Gender Activists and Trainers (SANGAT), and serves on select boards, advisory and expert committees of government and civil society initiatives. Suneeta holds a post-graduate degree from the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai.

Rati Forbes | Director, Forbes Marshall

Rati Forbes has been a Director with the Forbes Marshall group since 1992, recently focusing her time on the social initiatives Forbes Marshall has developed. Rati also heads the Forbes Marshall Foundation, initiating several programs for under-privileged women and children from neighbouring communities with a focus on health, education and women's empowerment. Rati chaired the CII Western Region cell for social development from 2002 to 2006, where she sensitized corporations to their social responsibility. She continues to be actively involved with CII's outreach programs for skill development, and co-chairs the steering committee of the Indian Women Network. Rati also serves on the advisory board for Akanksha Pune, Teach For India Pune, Centre for Learning Resources, Centre for Advancement of Philanthropy, the Business Community Foundation, and others. Rati graduated from Bombay University in Mumbai with a degree in Psychology (with honors) and Sociology, and graduated from Cambridge University, UK, with a master's degree in Sustainability Leadership and Management.

Ratnakar Gaikwad | Managing Director, Maharashtra Village Social Transformation Foundation

Ratnakar Gaikwad is the Managing Director of the Maharashtra Village Social Transformation Foundation (VSTF), an organization dedicated to reforming villages facing social, economic, livelihood, connectivity and infrastructural challenges in Maharashtra, India. Mr. Gaikwad started his career with the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) in 1975, and as a Senior IAS officer gained extensive experience within government and on-the-ground understanding of community development in both rural and urban settings. Over his career Mr. Gaikwad held several leadership posts in government, including Municipal Commissioner, Pune, CEO of the Zilla Parishad, Pune, Director General of the Yashwantrao Chavan Academy of Development Administration (YASHADA), and retired as Chief Secretary, Government of Maharashtra. Mr. Gaikwad received his master's degree from Pune University in 1974.

Nitin Kareer | Additional Chief Secretary, Revenue and Forest Department, Government of Maharashtra

Dr. Nitin Kareer is an officer with the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) and currently serves as Additional Chief Secretary of the Revenue and Forest Department of the Government of Maharashtra. . Previously, Dr. Kareer served as the Principal Secretary for Urban Development of the Government of Maharashtra, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Pune Smart City Development Corporation Limited (PSCDCL), Municipal Commissioner, Pune, and CEO of the Zilla Parishad, Pune. Dr. Kareer received his MBBS degree from BJ Medical College in Pune and his master's degree in Business Administration with a specialization in Finance from the Institute of Management Development and Research (IMDR) in Pune.

Govind Kelkar | Senior Advisor, Landesa

Dr. Govind Kelkar is Senior Advisor to Landesa in New Delhi, India. She is also Regional Council Member of Asia-Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development, Chiang Mai, Thailand. She has previously worked for UN Women, and taught at Delhi University, the Indian Institute of Technology, Mumbai, and the Asian Institute of Technology (AIT), Bangkok, Thailand. At AIT, Dr. Kelkar founded the graduate program in Gender Development Studies and also the Gender, Technology and Development Journal, published by SAGE, India. She has worked extensively on gender and energy transition in rural Asia, and has contributed numerous articles to scholarly journals with a focus on gender relations in Asia. Dr. Kelkar received her Ph.D. in the Political Economy of China from the University of Delhi and undergraduate degree in Foreign Affairs and Diplomacy from the University of Lucknow.

A.K. Shiva Kumar | Global Co-Chair, Know Violence

Dr. A. K. Shiva Kumar is a development economist and evaluator who works on human development, including poverty, health, nutrition, basic education, and the rights of women and children. He is Co-Chair of the Know Violence in Childhood initiative and teaches economics and public policy as a visiting faculty member at Ashoka University and Harvard's Kennedy School of Government. Dr. Kumar is an alumnus of Bangalore University and the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad and received his master's degree in Public Administration and Ph.D. in Political Economy and Government from Harvard University.

Anu Madgavkar | Partner, McKinsey Global Institute

Anu Madgavkar is a partner with the McKinsey Global Institute, where her research has focused on global labor markets and skills; gender economics; migration; economic development and poverty alleviation, and applying technology to development challenges. She has co-authored several MGI reports, including The Power of Parity: Advancing Women's Equality in India. Previously, Anu co-led McKinsey's Financial Institutions practice in India. She advises business and government leaders on economic development; contributes to policy debates through articles and conference presentations; and serves on the National Economic Growth and Investments Council of the Confederation of Industry in India. Anu received her MBA from the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, and studied economics and statistics at St. Xavier's College in Mumbai.

P.M. Nair | IPS (Retired), Chair Professor, TISS

Dr. P.M. Nair has been a career police officer with the Indian Police Service since 1978. After 35 years of service in various capacities including work with the Central Bureau of Investigation, National Human Rights Commission, UN Office on Drugs and Crime, and Central Reserve Police Force, he retired in 2013 as the Director General of National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) and Director General of Civil Defence, Government of India, to take on a new role as Chairperson of the Centre of Police Studies and Public Security and Chair Professor at the Tata Institute of Social Sciences in Mumbai. Besides other assignments, he is the Head of the National Research on Human Trafficking in India, a project supported by the United Nations, Government of India, and Tata Trusts. Dr. Nair has published several professional books and articles. He is the father of the AHTU in India, the integrated Anti Human Trafficking Units, the comprehensive task force set up by him in 9 Districts in India to prevent and combating human trafficking, which has now been replicated to more than 270 Districts in India. Dr. Nair holds a master's degree, LLB, and Ph.D, in Sociology.

Anupama Pandey | Specialist, Documentation and Communication, Delhi Government

Anupama Pandey has had the opportunity to work with the corporate, social and the government sector and brings with her the expanse of experiential knowledge towards practical implementation of projects. Armed with a degree in Economics and Business Management, she works towards social causes, putting her mind where her heart is! Ms. Pandey received her undergraduate degree from Delhi University.

Jaya Sagade | Director, Women's Studies Center, ILS Law College

Dr. Jaya Sagade is Director of the Centre for Women's Studies and Coordinator of the Centre for Mental Health Law and Policy, at the India Law Society (ILS) Law College, where she previously served as Vice Principal. Dr. Sagade's areas of interest include gender and law, family law, human rights, and reproductive health. She has published extensively, most recently Child Marriage in India: Sociological and Human Rights Dimension (OUP, New Delhi). Dr. Sagade received her LL.M. and Ph.D. from the University of Pune and her S.J.D from the University of Toronto.

Kalpana Sharma | Journalist and Media Consultant

Kalpana Sharma is a Mumbai-based independent journalist, columnist and media consultant who writes for English and Indian language publications in India. Her areas of interest include environmental, developmental and gender issues. She has worked with the Times of India, Indian Express and Himmat Weekly. Ms. Sharma is the author of Rediscovering Dharavi: Stories from Asia's Largest Slum (Penguin 2000), and has edited Missing: Half the Story, Journalism as if Gender Matters (Zubaan Books). She co-edited Whose News? The Media and Women's Issues (Sage 1994, 2006) and Terror Counter-Terror: Women Speak Out (Kali for Women, 2003) with Ammu Joseph. Currently, Ms. Sharma is a columnist in The Sunday Magazine supplement of The Hindu and an editorial consultant with the Economic and Political Weekly, and has regular columns on The Hoot (www.thehoot.org).

Vijay Wavare | Consultant, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Cell, Pimpri-Chinchwad Municipal Corporation

Vijay Wavare has 22 years of diverse experience in the development sector. He has worked with the NGO Institute of Health Management Pachod (IHMP) on the implementation of government policy on health. He has worked within the CSR divisions of Ballarpur Industries Ltd. (an Avantha Group company) and Tech Mahindra Ltd, where he managed their programs in Pune, Mumbai and Nagpur. Currently, Vijay serves as a consultant with the Pimpri-Chinchwad Municipal Corporation, supporting the PCMC's efforts to establish a CSR cell. In this role, he has successfully brought together municipal, corporate and civil society representatives to strengthen municipal services, and executed the UNDP-Swedish Chamber of Commerce-PCMC employability project. Vijay holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Pune University and a master's degree in Social Work from the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai.